AS TO THE "PULLING OFF OF

The real motive of the LEDGER through deliberate and persistent misrepresentation to hold certain Democrats responsible for party de-feat should we meet with disaster in November. It would gladly see Missouri and the Ninth District go Republican if the responsibility could only be se Democrate who are just now entrusted with party man-agement. Its ambition to pull down is vastly stronger than its desire to build up. Success for the Democracy, build up. Success for the Democracy coupled with the resultant credit to those now in charge of the party affairs, would scarcely cause the LEI GER to go wild with joy. The loss of the State ticket and the election of a "sound money" Republican to Con-gress in the Ninth District would not cause the LEDGER to weep gurgling tears of grief if it could only have the placing of the responsibility for party

The Detmold Pipe Works is located in Franklin county, Mo., and makes all kinds of pipes from all kinds of cobs. The St. Louis Grocer last week contained an extended article in reference to this company and it is wonderful the amount of money made from corn cobs. In fact, the cobs bring a great deal more than the corn that was on the cob. There are only a few cob pipe factories in the United States and the one in Franklin county is the largest and best known. Early this morning nearly a hundred young men went to the city cemetery to prepare graves for their relatives, friends or neighbors, who were victims of the tornado. In the cemetery this afternoon more than three score new graves were ready to receive the bodies of the dead, while in every direction pathetic scenes were of con stant occurrence.

Every vacant building has been con verted into a hospital. The Moore building, on the south side of the square, contains about sixty injured people, a number of whom will likely die. Colored and white people stand side by side administering to the wants of the dying, never noticing the color of those upon whom they are waiting. L. H. Montgomery, a leading furniture dealer of this city, is crazed over his terrible loss. This afternoon his entire family, consisting of wife and three little daughters, were laid to rest, and his grief as he realized the final fate of his family was too pathetic for words.
